A cozy stay at a comfortable price.®

Country Hospitality.

Country Hospitality. It's that friendly "front porch" feeling that invites you to come inside, and the warm and cozy fireplace that makes you feel not-so-far from home. It's the come-when-you're hungry breakfast bar, and the extra little efforts that make the difference between us - and all the others. It's consistency you can count on, always at just the right price. Hospitality is what brings people back - and why our guests say they will stay with us again . . . and again.

Swimming pools available at most locations.
