Indulge in the Arts

Everybody remembers the art museum scene from Ferris Bueller's Day Off—you can visit the same museum in downtown Chicago, adjacent to Grant Park. It houses one of the most diverse collections in the world, including one of the world's largest Monet collections, in addition to pieces by Picasso, Matisse, Dali, Pollock and Warhol. The temporary shows are also well-known and always receive critical acclaim.

Eat, Drink and Be Merry

If you want homemade French food at a reasonable price in an informal setting, Barrington Country Bistro is for you. It has a huge wine list, delectable deserts and outdoor dining when the weather cooperates.

Take a Breath of Fresh Air

Grant Park is your one-stop shop in downtown Chicago. You can enjoy everything from a run along the lakeshore to an outdoor concert to an exhibit at the Art Institute of Chicago. The park is 300 acres and lies adjacent to the famed Buckingham Fountain.

Shop Till You Drop

MAGNIFICENT MILE. If you are looking for window shopping or treating yourself to some of the most expensive shopping in the Midwest, look no farther than the Magnificent Mile, which runs down Michigan Avenue from Oak Street to the Chicago River. You'll see all the top labels and designers. If you are looking for something a little more affordable, check out Streeterville, a more relaxed shopping district about two blocks to the east.

Relax and Rejuvenate

After a day of shopping, dining and taking in the scenery, relax with a massage, a facial or a sun salutation. The below spas and yoga studios will leave you breathing deeply and thinking clearly.
