Indulge in the Arts

The Telfair Museum is the oldest public arts museum in the South. Even more impressive than its history is its collection of American and European paintings, sculpture and special exhibits.

Take a Breath of Fresh Air

The 30-acre Forsythe Park is perfect for a run, a picnic, a photo trip or just a look at the sights, a few of which were featured in the movie Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil.

Shop Till You Drop

City Market opened in 1775 as a fish, game and produce market. Although the original structure no longer stands, a new market has been constructed on the same grounds. Today, the area's charming ambience boasts trolley and carriage tours, live bands and a multitude of art galleries, specialty shops and restaurants.

The world-famous River Street is lined with shops and restaurants on one side and the Savannah River on the other. It is a great place to sightsee, eat seafood, shop, have a glass of wine and watch the ships. riverstreetsavannah.com

Relax and Rejuvenate

After a day of shopping, dining and taking in the scenery, relax with a massage, a facial or a sun salutation. The below yoga spas and studios will leave you breathing deeply and thinking clearly:
